1. Naval

- a. During August 1947, the Bay of Kihelkonna, on the west coast of Saaremaa, was the scene of Soviet naval maneuvers. During these maneuvers the units were stationed at the Tagalaht base.
- b. During June 1948, similar maneuvers were held in the same area.
- c. The harbor area of Tagalaht has become a permanent base for Soviet naval craft. The entire area has been declared a security zone and is strongly guarded from both land and sea approaches.
- d. All former harbors and harbor facilities on Saaremaa are in operation again.
- e. A naval air base has been installed at Karujärv (20 km. northwest of Kuresaare). Comment: An airfield was previously reported to be located on the eastern shore of Lake Kauru, west central Saaremaa.) About 20 planes are stationed there; they are believed to constitute a naval reconnaissance squadron. Another such base and a similar unit are located at Papisaae, about three km. from Kihelkonna.
